Profit Sharing Model

![icon] Profit sharing on Kismet lets both Kismet and its partners benefit from gaming revenue
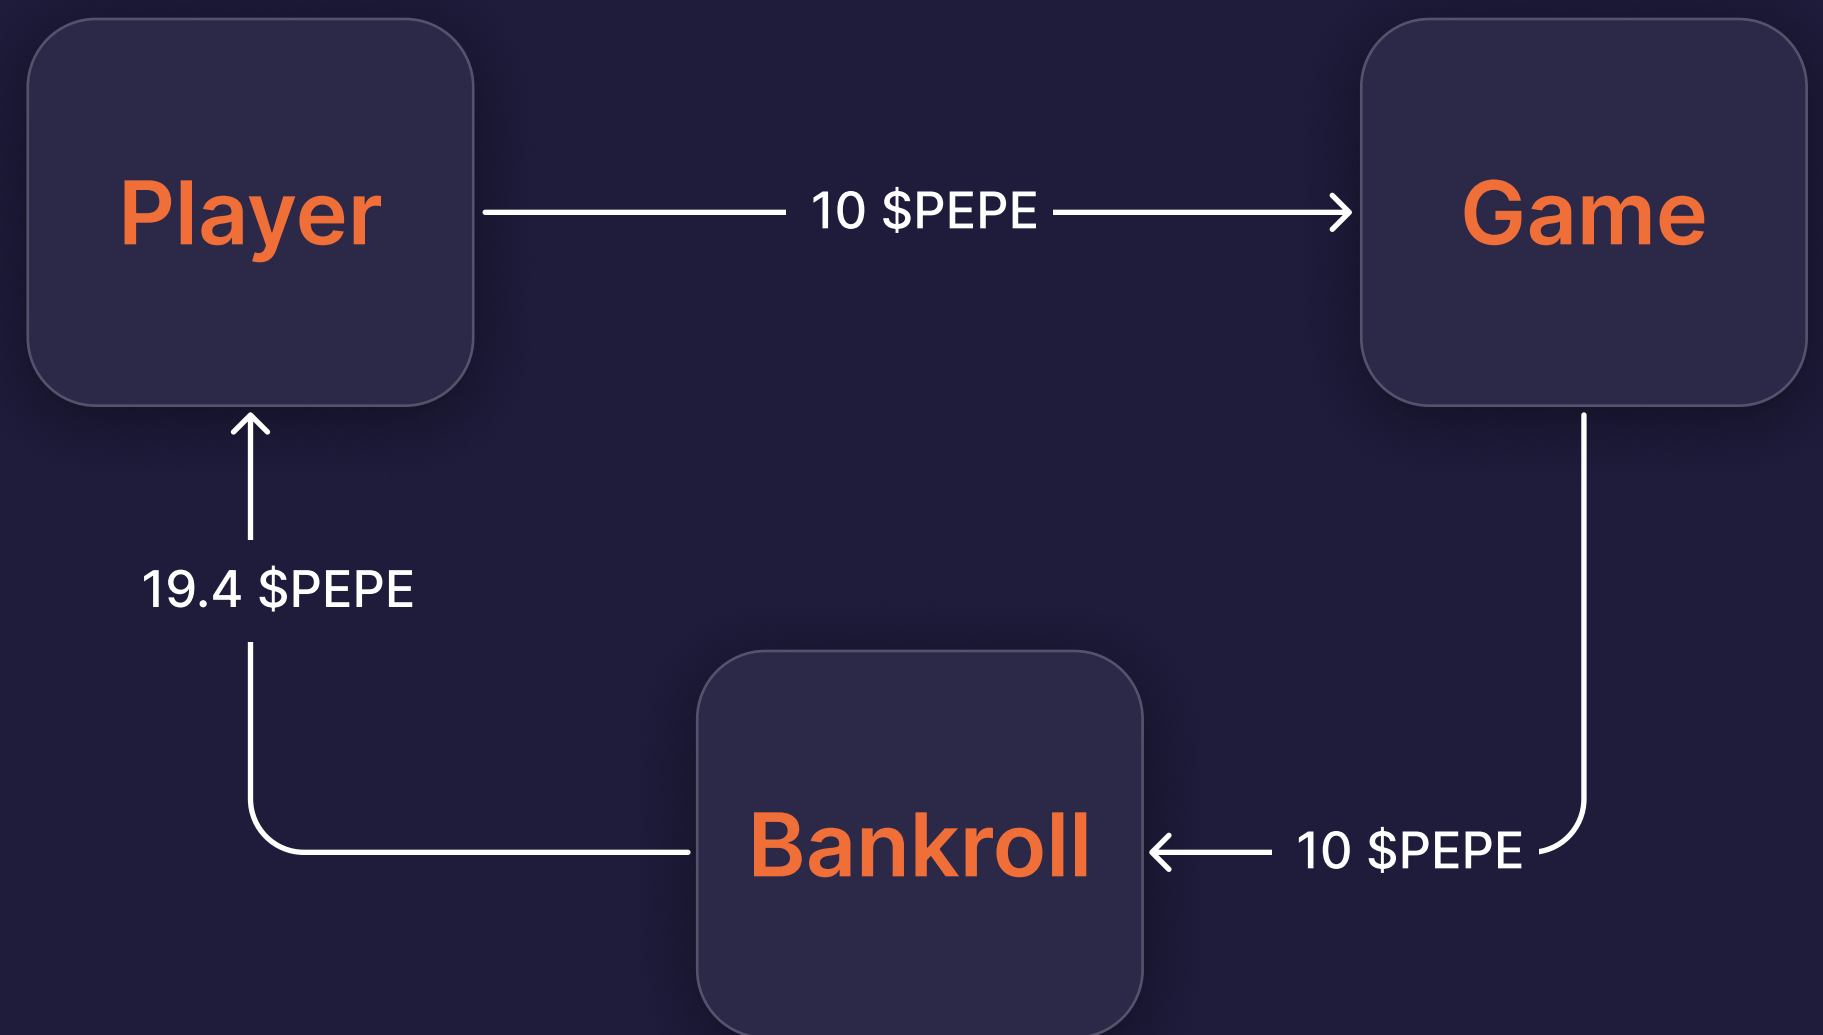

![icon] It offers a steady revenue stream, helping projects sustain operations and reward their community through shared earnings

![icon] When a partner provides liquidity, only they have access to it and can withdraw or add liquidity at any time

Example: Win

If the player wins on a 1.94x payout game with a 3% house edge

```
Player  ──── 10 $PEPE ────►  Game
  ▲                            │
  │                            │
19.4 $PEPE                 10 $PEPE
  │                            │
  └──── Bankroll ◄─────────────┘
```
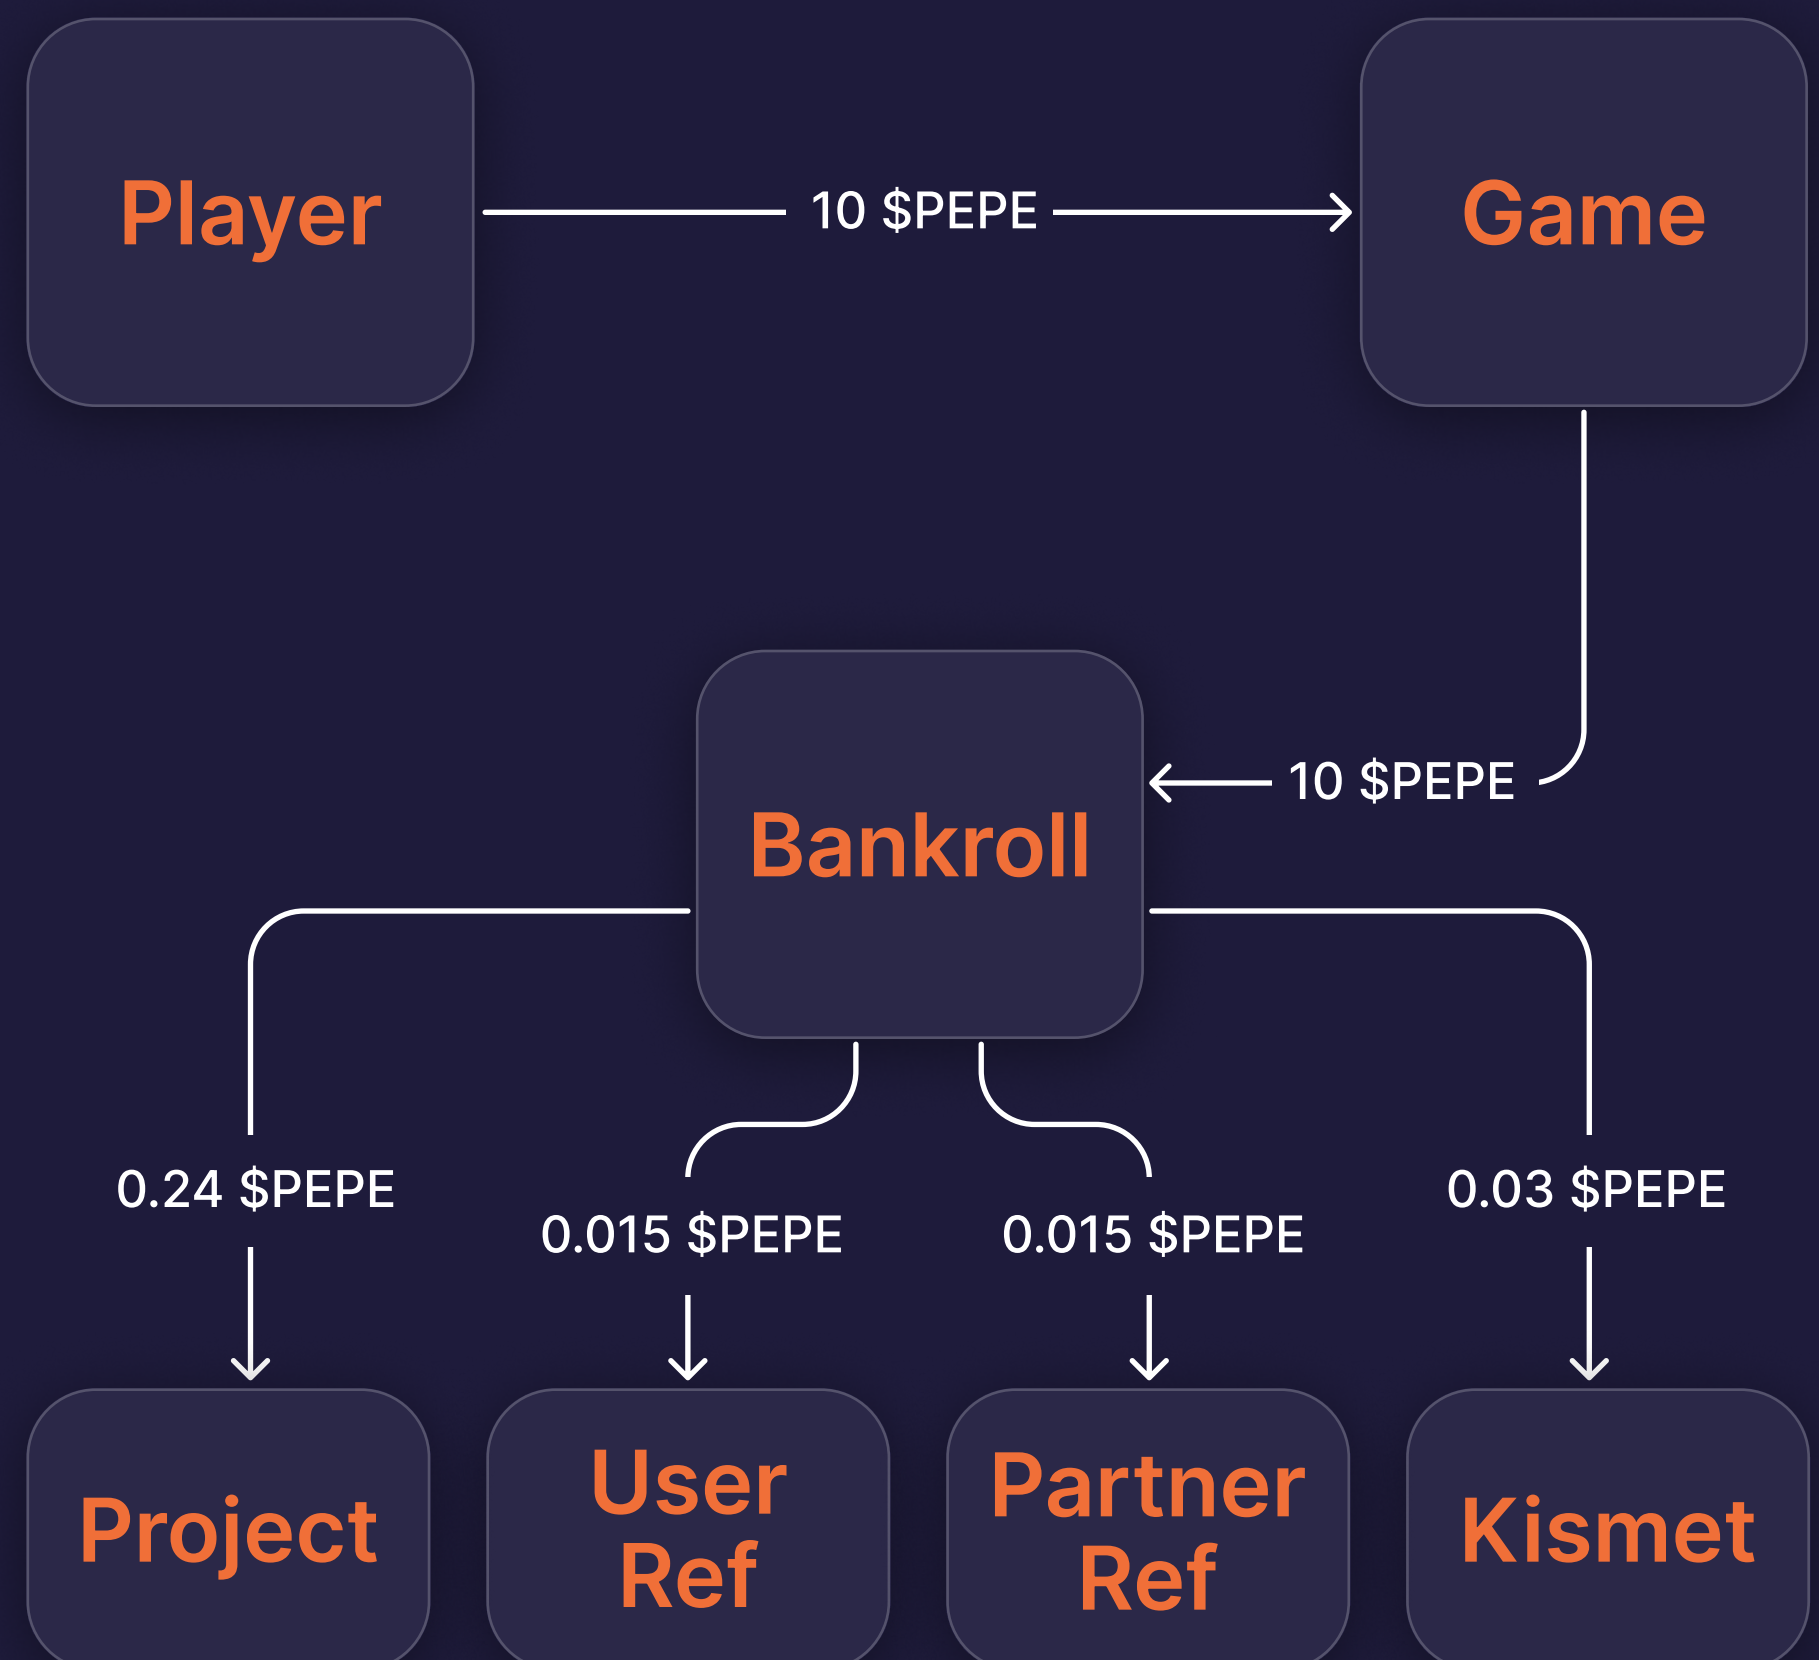

Project   User   Partner   Kismet

Profit Sharing Model

Token	Project Token
Project Share	80%
User Share	5%
Partner Share	5%
Kismet Share	10%

Example: Lose

If the player loses on a 1.94x payout game with a 3% house edge

Player → 10 $PEPE → Game

Game → 10 $PEPE → Bankroll

Bankroll → 0.24 $PEPE → Project

Bankroll → 0.015 $PEPE → User Ref

Bankroll → 0.015 $PEPE → Partner Ref

Bankroll → 0.03 $PEPE → Kismet

Profit Sharing Cont.

A — Win: Project Token Wager

When a user wins a 1.94x payout game with a 3% house edge, wagering 10 $PEPE, they receive 19.4 $PEPE, gaining 100% of the winnings.

B — Lose: Project Token Wager

When a user loses a Project Token wager in a game with a 1.94x payout and a 3% House Edge, the money is divided like this:

- Kismet: Gets 10% of the House Edge (e.g., 0.03 $PEPE from 0.30 $PEPE).
- Project: Gets 80% of the House Edge (e.g., 0.24 $PEPE from 0.30 $PEPE).
- BankRoll: Receives 97% of the losing amount.
